The following are the questions presented to the Shaykh with the corresponding minute marker from the audio:

1. There’s a sister in Lebanon, who has been forced into marriage with a man who has abandoned all actions of Islām. Her father has also abandoned all actions of Islām. She is not happy with this marriage but she has no choice because she was threaten possibly with serious beatings. And she has previously had her arm broken due to not obeying them in a previous matter when she was forced to do something. She is not able to run away, as she is locked up and there are security guards outside 24 / 7, she cannot get help from authorities either, since she is a Palestinian residing in Lebanon. Her husband is treating her very badly and hurts her when she does not want sexual relations, which she never wants anyway. She needs advice, please answer. [00:00:48]
2. Regarding the ṣalāh of a 7 year old, my husband commands him to pray all the five (5) ṣalāwāt everyday, and to wake up early to pray Fajr every morning, even if Asr had passed and maghrib is entering, he commands him to make up Asr. Is my husband being a little too strict on the child? Could the child skip a ṣalāh every now and again? [00:09:46]
