The following are the questions presented to the Shaykh with the corresponding minute marker from the audio:

1. I have a son who is an alcoholic. He drinks every day and is intoxicated daily. We have tried to help him but he is not who desires to change nor does he cooperate. He is being like this for fifteen plus years. Before he would be ashamed and remorseful and apologetic when drunk and would try to conceal that he drinks, from our family. Now he has started to disturb and terrorize his family, abusing and swearing, causing fitnah and fights. We have become accustomed to a drunk man in our home. The family is disturbed by him regularly, everyone is miserable and he is driving my other children out of the home, one by one. What do you advise us with? [00:00:43]
2. To protect your children from ḥasad is saying Mā shā Allāh, Tabāraka Allāh, sufficient, or do you have to say Mā shā Allāh, Allāhumma Bārik Alīh, and that which is similar to this? [00:06:11]
3. Does drinking camel milk break your wuḍū’? [00:11:27]
4. I am suffering from a disease called urinary incontinence. After I urinate, drops of urine come out for about fifteen minutes which sometimes exceed to around twenty-five minutes. This is the time by which sometimes I come to know that urine has stopped, though I could have stopped a bit earlier. It sometimes makes me miss ṣalāh in the mosque. What should I do? [00:13:27]

5. My wife has been passing out since right after she completed high school many years ago. I found out last year [that] she is possessed by Jinn, she fears staying home alone, and we would like your advice and du'ā for her, Yā Shaykh, may Allāh be good to you. [00:18:29]
6. Yā Shaykh may Allāh preserve you; there is an organization here who calls non-muslim politicians to their Islāmic conferences. Should we attend that? If not, then why? [00:25:40]
