The following are the questions presented to the Shaykh with the corresponding minute marker from the audio:

1. My parents introduced me to someone for marriage but I did not like the person so I have refused. He also requested to speak to me privately on the phone and I said that it is not allowed and I do not wish to marry a person who asked this of me. My parents are now angry and upset with me, must I please my parents in this matter or am I allowed to refuse? [00:00:42]
2. What can we Muslims do to support the Rohingya Muslims that are being persecuted and oppressed? [00:17:55]
3. In the land Singapore where I live, majority of the Muslims here are of the Ash’arī creed. And every student of knowledge who would want to teach to the general public firstly, they have to attend a recognition scheme by the Mufti office. To attain this qualification, the student of knowledge has to attend bridging classes on the aspect of Dīn living in a society where majority of the Muslims are on different creeds and manhaj. What is the ruling on the student of knowledge who has just completed his studies from the Islāmic University in Madinah who stands up on the manhaj of the Salaf but has to water down his manhaj and create an order for him to attain that qualification to teach here? What advice do you give to our brothers here, who have studied in the Islāmic University in Madinah and facing this issue?

4. I am a young woman living in a city where there is only one other Salafī woman. There are no lessons in this city; there is a city next to ours where the Salafīyyūn are many. Is it allowed for me to take the train to attend the lectures and events in that city? The train takes 40-50 minutes it is mixed and the people do not consider this travel here. I have also the opportunity to accompany the Muslim Salafī couple in their car who live in my city. What do you advise me with? [00:46:58]
